ADVENTURES OF GALLANT BESS

(Eagle Lion)

Cameron Mitchell, Audrey Long, Fuzzy Knight

In a setting of glorious color revealing the grandeur of the horse country of the West, a young cowboy rodeo performer trains a wild mare to become a rodeo star. An unscrupulous rodeo owner, after failing to purchase Bess, tricks Cameron Mitchell, the cowboy, so that he loses his horse and suffers a broken leg. Following his recuperation, he recovers his horse in a climax that is full of excitement. Cinecolor

RUTHLESS (Eagle Lion)

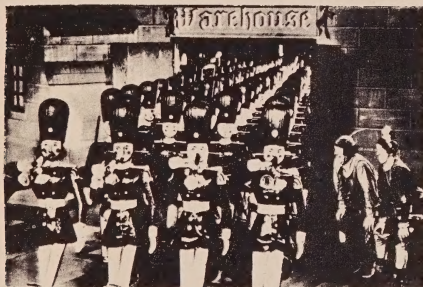

Zachary Scott, Diana Lynn, Sydney Greenstreet, Louis Hatward, Lucille Bremer

Here is one of the most powerful photoplays in years and a great cast to portray it. This is the story of a man—if he could be called that—to whom money and power were all that mattered. His road to financial success was strewn with the broken hearts of three women who loved him and whom he used in his ruthless grasping for millions; with the minds and bodies of men whom he destroyed when they stood in his way; with the hatred of all who ever knew him. Many people were responsible for his success but he hurt every one of them when it served his purpose. Few men in real life were ever so mean but many approach his pattern. This is a provocative story.

THE GREAT MIKE

Stuart Erwin, Buzzy Henry, Mike, the Horse, Corky, the Dog

This is a story of loyalties—of a boy, a horse, and a dog, and how their mutual love and faith made them winners all. But the goal of success was not easy. Jimmy had his horse sold from under him, his dog killed, his faith in people almost shattered until he met kindness and eventual happiness. Excellent for juvenile audiences, good for all lovers of animals.

MARCH OF THE WOODEN SOLDIERS

Stan Laurel, Oliver Hardy, Charlotte Henry

The delightful operetta "Babes in Toyland" is brought to the screen with all its colorful fantasy and laughs galore. Here is a story that lends a rich background for the antics of these zanies while all the fairyland characters parade before us. Victor Herbert's lilting melodies are delightful. Included are "March of the Toys," "Castles in Spain," "Toyland" and many others.

THE CHASE (United Artists)

Robert Cummings, Michele Morgan, Steve Cochran, Peter Lorre

A full quota of suspense and thrills in the Hitchcock tradition fills the screen in the melodramatic chase of Robert Cummings and Michele Morgan by two sinister pursuers.

ENCHANTED FOREST

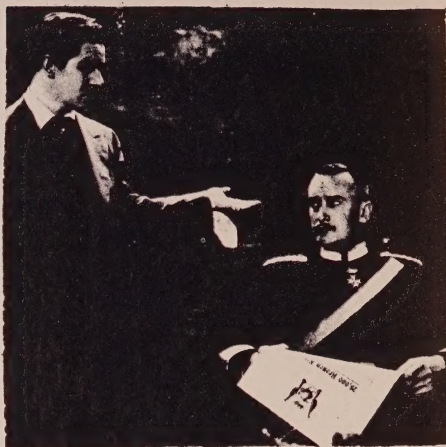

Edmund Lowe, Brenda Joyce, Harry Davenport, Billy Serven

Just like a Walt Disney cartoon come to life is this delightful film fantasy in beautiful Cinecolor. It tells the story of Old John, a kindly old hermit, a small boy lost in the forest, and their bird and animal friends. An educational and colorful background serve to enhance a story that will prove a treat to all youngsters from six to sixty.

THE SON OF MONTE CRISTO (United Artists)

Louis Hayward, Joan Bennett, George Sanders

The swashbuckling son of a famous father carries on the traditions for justice established for him. He matched the skill of his sword and the strength of his love against a power-mad tyrant. When the principality of Lichtenburg falls under the dictatorial control of a tyrant, the Grand Duchess Zona seeks help outside of the country to overthrow the dictator. On her way to Paris the Count of Monte Cristo is enlisted in her cause and helps her free her country from the yoke of oppression, but not without diplomatic aid and plenty of excitement and sword play. Lovers of adventurous romantic pictures will love this colorful spectacle.

LAST OF THE MOHICANS

Randolph Scott, Binnie Barnes, Henry Wilcoxon, Bruce Cabot, Heather Angel

A stirring screen triumph rises from the pages of the immortal story by James Fennimore Cooper, loved by all Americans. A mighty drama bursting with the glory of America's most exciting days.

LI'L ABNER (RKO)

Granville Owen, Martha O'Driscoll

Your favorite comic strip comes alive on the screen. The boy wonder of the comic pages and all of his Dogpatch neighbors are here to give you "Sadie Hawkins Day" and all the mountain folklore you've read about. Purty Daisy Mae is still after Li'l Abner, the biggest catch in Dogpatch.

ADVENTURES OF RUSTY

Ted Donaldson, Margaret Lindsay, Conrad Nagel

When his father remarries, Danny has difficulty adjusting himself to his new mother to whom he fears he is losing his father's affection. He turns to his dog in his loneliness. The mother wins his love with tender understanding. A human stirring story of great devotion.

CHEERS FOR MISS BISHOP

Martha Scott, William Gargan, Marsha Hunt, Edmund Guenn

The life of an unusual woman, a woman as vivid and vital as the period spanned by this great story, 1879 to 1923. Ella Bishop had a great romance as a girl, but marriage was not to be her lot. As an English professor at Midwestern University, Miss Bishop de-

AN OLD FASHIONED GIRL (A-1) 82 minutes

The joyous successor to Louisa May Alcott's "Little Women" is her story "An Old Fashioned Girl." Starring sweet singer Gloria Jean, Jimmy Lydon, John Hubbard and Frances Rafferty appear in the leading supporting roles.

The story tells of the tender romances and humorous misadventures of a young singing teacher in Boston society in the 19th century. Gloria Jean not only finds her singing pupils in staid old Back Bay Boston but she finds happiness for herself and the friends around her.

Gloria Jean sings Schubert's "Where?" and the "Travel Song" and "Kitchen Serenade." A fifteen year old girl violinist, Saundra Berkova, makes her screen debut in the Alcott film, with several string selections.

70 minutes

Fun for all the family—Junior, sis, mom and dad is delivered by the Teen Agers in "Junior Prom." There's jive to make the younger folks jump, sweet music by Abe Lyman's Band for the oldsters and lots of fun for everyone.

Freddie Stewart runs for President of the High School Student Body. His competitor is the son of a wealthy man who tries to use political influence to swing the election. June Preisser, Judy Clark and the entire student body join in a bang-up campaign for their favorite candidates.

The students stage a musical jamboree in their Teen Canteen on election night when the campaign winner is to be announced. Fast and furious fun, music and excitement bring this breezy, clean story to a happy ending. Ideal for high school and church screenings as well as home and party showings.

LOST HONEYMOON

7 Reels—71 Mins.

STARRING: Franchot Tone, Ann Richards and Tom Conway:

If he knew where he lost his honeymoon . . . if he knew when he lost it . . . then he'd know which Miss to call Mrs. For Franchot Tone it's love without kisses because he couldn't tell his Miss from his Mrs. Here's the motion picture comedy of the year, a racy riot of excitement, laughs and romance.

Hedda Hopper says "‘Lost Honeymoon’ is a sure cure for the blues!"

WHISPERING CITY

10 Reels—89 Mins.

STARRING: Helmut Dantine, Mary Anderson and Paul Lukas.

The screen's most perilous journey into fear! Do you know what it is to be AFRAID? Afraid of the past that has been hidden so long? Afraid of the whispers that echoed . . . murder! Screams that shattered the silence of a terrorized city! Terror that fell like a dark shadow, covering all who dared to walk in the "Whispering City."

The suspense-packed story deals with a wealthy lawyer whose world of respectability threatens to topple when a girl reporter gets the deathbed confession and diary of the famous actress-wife of the lawyer's best friend, whom he had murdered. The problem confronting the lawyer is how to liquidate the sob sister before she writes the story.

THE WIFE OF MONTE CRISTO

8 Reels—81 Mins.

STARRING: John Loder, Lenore Aubert and Martin Kosleck.

Alexandre Dumas, greatest adventure writer of all times, emblazons a bright story of adventure, love, intrigue, flashing swordplay and tantalizing danger. The picture is set in the courtly days of France, when swords sang their message of adventure and romance. The heroine, a striking dark-haired beauty, captures men's hearts in the daytime, but strikes in the black of night to avenge the weak and the poor people of France.

Woven throughout the picture is the thread of the revenge of the Count of Monte Cristo. Filled with royal intrigue, the gallantry of the fighters for right, stands out as a shining example for all to see. The love of this beautiful woman is an inspiration to her followers, many of whom are ready to lay down their lives for her . . . and do so.

TARZAN AND THE AMAZONS

*Johnny Weismuller, Brenda Joyce,
Johnny (Boy) Sheffield*

One of the best of the Tarzan series to date. The thrilling story of the mysterious Palmyrian tribe of warriors and their fabulous gold hoard. Two short subjects included.

PRISONER OF ZENDA (UA)

Ronald Coleman, Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., Madeleine Carroll, Mary Astor, David Nivel, Raymond Massey and C. Aubrey Smith

We need say very little of the quality and beauty of this motion picture masterpiece. The producer, the cast, the story—are all synonymous with the best. The producer, David O. Selznick, surpasses himself in this famous classic of adventure and romance by Anthony Hope. The familiar story deals with a king of a mythical kingdom, a dipsomaniac, whose brother is planning a coup d'etat. While the king is at his hunting lodge, his retinue meet up with a titled Englishman whose resemblance to the king is so strong that they make him assume the king's identity while the latter is spirited away.

FOREIGN CORRESPONDENT (UA)

Joel McCrea, Laraine Day, Herbert Marshall, George Sanders

The master director, Alfred Hitchcock, provides an outstanding story which unwinds on the screen with amazing speed and tempo, keeping the audience on tenterhooks from start to finish. A reporter on a New York daily is dispatched to Europe to dig up facts concerning the international situation and cracks open an intrigue that has never been matched on the screen for thrills and excitement.

PHANTOM OF THE OPERA (Un)

Nelson Eddy, Claude Rains, Susanna Foster

FIRST TECHNICOLOR FEATURE PRESENTATION!! The well known story, enhanced by spectacularly beautiful colors, highlights the inspired singing of Nelson Eddy and the starkly realistic acting of Claude Rains.

Operatic selections by the cast, accompanied by a full Symphonic Orchestra, provide a thrilling musical background. One Technicolor short subject included.

RED STALLION IN THE ROCKIES (Eagle Lion)

Jean Heather, Arthur Franz, Wallace Ford

A great outdoor spectacle sweeps to the screen in Cinecolor. Red Stallion is back for a new adventure. Circus people who have turned ranch hands recognize a famous circus horse that ran off with a pack of wild horses. The film builds up to a climax with the fury of a battle between a rage-maddened elk and the stallion king of the Rockies. Unparalleled for screen thrills, the film is a worthy successor to "Red Stallion."

ANGEL ON MY SHOULDER (United Artists)

Paul Muni, Claude Rains, Anne Baxter

This is a most unusual comedy-drama fantasy with the leading roles portrayed by three great stars. The story deals with the return to the earthly regions, from Hades, of an ex-gangster, and Satan, who is seeking recruits. However, the ex-gangster, instead of aiding the Devil, finds himself an influence for good.

COPACABANA (United Artists)

Groucho Marx, Carmen Miranda, Andy Russell, Steve Cochran, Gloria Jean

Groucho and Carmen supply their usual bombastic comedy. Andy Russell provides some beautiful singing, and Steve Cochran and Gloria Jean add some romantic complications to a picture that will provide solid entertainment. This is a giggle packed comedy with music set at the lavish Copacabana.

ADVENTURES OF MARTIN EDEN

Glenn Ford, Claire Trevor, Evelyn Keyes

Only Jack London, drawing from his personal experiences, could have written this story with all of the lusty, brawling adventure of the high seas and the men of the sea. Serving under the brutal command of Captain Ragan, Martin Eden seeks reforms for the crew and vindication for a fellow seaman charged with mutiny. Publication of a novel, "The Death Wagon," is his way of getting the light of publicity to eliminate an intolerable situation.

THE FABULOUS DORSEYS (United Artists)

Tommy Dorsey, Jimmy Dorsey, Janet Blair, Paul Whiteman

Here is a nostalgic presentation of the careers of Mr. Sax and Mr. Trombone. It traces the careers of Tommy and Jimmy Dorsey from their start in Shenandoah, Pa. through their association with Paul Whiteman, and their subsequent emergence as great band leaders in their own right, after a personal feud results in the dissolution of the Dorsey Brothers Band. All this is portrayed to the accompaniment of "Green Eyes," "The Object of My Affection," "Marie,"

SENSATIONS

Eleanor Powell, Dennis O'Keefe, W. C. Fields, Sophie Tucker, Woody Herman and Cab Calloway and their bands.

A lavishly produced musical revue that outdoes most productions in pulchritude, music, dancing, settings costumes and comedy. The inner workings of a talent agency serves as a backdrop for a number of excellent star acts such as "Circus in the Sky," "Old Plantation," "Gay Nineties Night" and others.

THE MAN IN THE IRON MASK (United Artists)

Joan Bennett, Louis Hayward, Warren Williams, Joseph Schildkraut

Alexandre Dumas' great adventure story of Louis XIV and the twin brother whom he kept in an iron mask to protect his throne has been brought to the screen with all of its swashbuckling romance. Rescued by the Three Musketeers, Philippe has his opportunity at sword's point to win an empire and a woman. Louis Hayward plays both roles in this unforgettable thrill.

A story of suspicion in which doubt and fear fight with faith as a woman struggles to believe in the innocence of her husband who has been accused of a crime. Because she knew him only a short while before their marriage, she cannot be sure, and suspense holds one spellbound until the dramatic climax. 7 reels. Running time, 68 minutes.

OUT OF THE BLUE (Eagle-Lion)

Virginia Mayo, George Brent, Turhan Bey,
Ann Dvorak

Here is one of the gayest comedies of the year hilariously presented by a great cast. Set in New York's Greenwich Village, the picture involves a romantic and handsome painter, a Philadelphia debutante who wants to find a mate—for her dog, a hen-pecked husband, a domineering wife, and a beautiful model. When the model faints in the apartment of the husband while the wife is away for the weekend a chain of hilarious complications is set off with everyone, including the dog, involved. As Cherokee Lansing, half wildcat, half angel, Susan Hayward heads a cast of stars including Robert Preston, Chill Wills, and Pedro Armendariz.

This is the story of Tulsa, Oklahoma . . . a prairie city rising out of the plains . . . once a cow camp on the Arkansas . . . today the nerve center of the mighty oil industry. It is a saga of Tulsa, as the boom town of the twenties riding the crest of the golden tide of oil.

Embittered by the hardships and mishaps of life, Miss Hayward is the quarter-Indian girl determined to become just as hard, tough and ruthless as the men who settle the oil lands. A geologist, Robert Preston, eventually makes her see the error of her reasoning and she becomes the girl Preston had dreamed she could be. A mighty spectacle on a tremendous scale, TULSA has a wild oil field fire, pictured in Technicolor. Rough ready days of the founding of a red-blooded city, set off by the whisper of a single word—OIL!

FLIGHT LIEUTENANT

Pat O'Brien, Glenn Ford, Evelyn Keyes

Roaring with the thrills of power-diving pilots, this thundering drama of the air deals with a test pilot father who sacrifices his life for his Air Corps son. Aviation enthusiasts will find here all the thrills, glamour and drama of the skyways.

BLONDIE PLAYS CUPID

Penny Singleton, Arthur Lake, Larry Sims, Glenn Ford

A new Bumstead bombshell of fun-packed merriment that will drive you to hysterics. Chic Young's comic strip characters go to the country—where Blondie plays Cupid, Baby Dumpling plays with dynamite and Dagwood plays (?) dumb. But it all ends well, with Glenn Ford winning the girl, Baby Dumpling discovering an oil well, and Dagwood learning what it's all about.

COUNT OF MONTE CRISTO (United Artists)

Robert Donat, Elissa Landi, Louis Calhern

Alexander Dumas' famous novel, one of the great classics of literature, is given excellent treatment in this screen masterpiece. Lavish costuming and sets, inspired direction, and a superb characterization by Robert Donat are combined to tell the story of a man unjustly imprisoned in the nineteenth century. Here he plans his future and his revenge and a blazing climax cap this emotionally stirring story.

GO WEST YOUNG LADY

Ann Miller, Glenn Ford, Penny Singleton, Charlie Ruggles

A musical western with oomph! All the thriller-diller action of the west is jam-packed with melodrama, music and mirth. Led by Penny Singleton, the townswomen organize a posse of Amazons to capture the villain and use pots, pans, brooms and rolling pins to succeed where the marshall failed.

BLONDIE HAS SERVANT TROUBLE

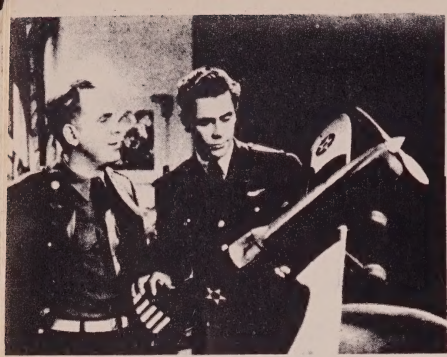

Penny Singleton, Arthur Lake, Larry Simms, Daisy

Blondie wants a maid, so Dagwood needs a raise—but all he can raise is the dickens. Although he doesn't get the raise, Mr. Dithers, his boss, offers him a house with two servants to occupy because it is being neglected and needs attention. A whirlwind of hilarity—as the family of the funnies fills you chock-full of chuckles.

KONGA, THE WILD STALLION

Fred Stone, Rochelle Hudson, Konga

Thrill to a thousand wild horses' thundering stampede and to the love of Konga, their king, for the man who saved his life. When Yance Kalhoun's herd of horses is seized by the sheriff, Konga gallops back to the hills where Yance originally found him as a two day old colt. After four hard years of separation, they are reunited in a scene as stirring as you'll ever see.

SAHARA

*Humphrey Bogart, Bruce Bennett,
J. Carrol Naish, Lloyd Bridges*

This is the story of the "Lulubelle," an army tank lumbering across the desert after the fall of Tobruk. It is also the story of her crew and of an assortment of allies which she picks up on her determined dash to avoid the enemy. Humphrey Bogart gives his usual dynamic two-fisted portrayal as Sergeant Gunn, in charge of the tank, its crew and its collection of men. The climax, an attack by Germans, presents battle scenes as exciting as any you'll see.

THE FIGHTING GUARDSMAN

*Anita Louise, Janis Carter,
Willard Parker, John Loder*

From the lusty pages of an Alexander Dumas stirring story, fiery deeds of glory live again in a flaming drama of intrigue and daring. Swashbuckling action to thrill the world as a dashing adventurer and his band of freedom loving peasants rise against King Louis XVI

DESTROYER

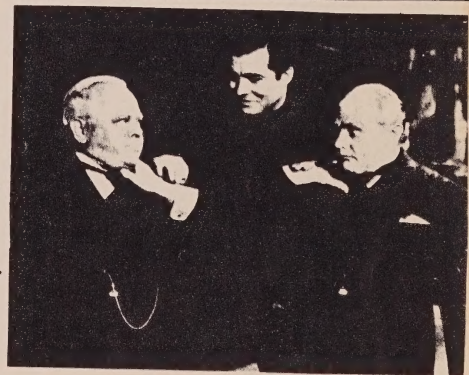

*Edward G. Robinson, Glenn Ford, Marguerite
Chapman, Edgar Buchanan*

Every now and then the screen brings forth a picture that captures the emotions of all. This is just such a picture. It has the tears and sweat, the joy, the heart! It has the story of men and their ship! It has thrill-packed action!

FRIENDLY ENEMIES (United Artists)

Charles Winninger, Charles Ruggles, James Craig

Two successful American businessmen of foreign birth find themselves with divided loyalties when the United States goes to war. While the picture has a message for all people with divided loyalties, it is presented with one of the funniest stories ever. Two guttural speaking friends constantly lose their tempers debating the problem; one completely attached to the United States and thankful for its blessings, the other dreaming of a sentimental past.

DANIEL BOONE (RKO)

George O'Brien, Heather Angel

Here is a recreation of the early pioneer days in a rousing story of one of America's greatest pioneers. The film has all the dashing adventure of the period, including Indian raids, the pioneer struggles against nature and intriguing, self-seeking whites.

BEWARE OF SPOOKS

Joe E. Brown, Mary Carlisle

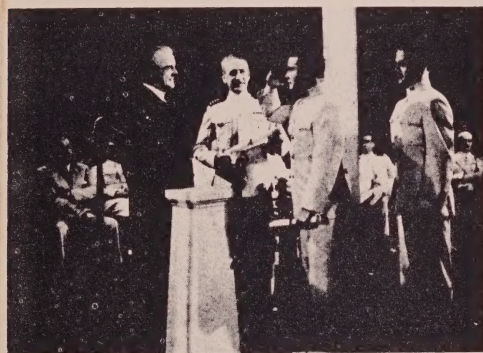

Joe is a timid policeman, afraid of his own shadow, much less a dangerous criminal. But circumstance and coincidence in a fun house put him in close contact with a much sought after desperado. Despite himself, Joe ends up capturing him in this hilarious, hair-raising comedy.

RETURN OF RUSTY

Ted Donaldson, John Litel, Mark Dennis

A boy with a dog and a kid without a country join to give you a delightfully different story that will forever live in your heart. A young stowaway from Czechoslovakia makes his way to a small town where he is both befriended and derided by the youngsters of the community. With a threat of deportation over his head, and the boys of the "club" against him because of a misunderstanding concerning his friend's dog, Loddy, the stowaway, finally clears everything and is adopted by an American family to satisfy the authorities.

HELLO ANNAPOLIS

Tom Brown, Jean Parker

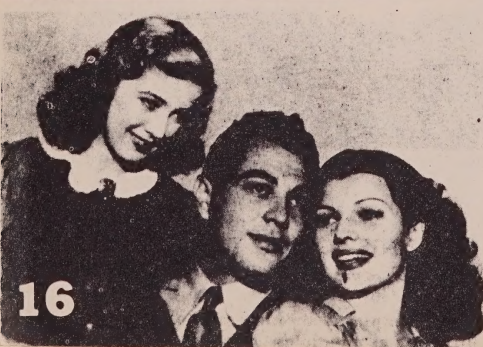

The United States Naval Academy serves as a background and provides a rich tradition for this story of a midshipman who, despite a bad start, acquires the ideals, courage, sportsmanship and patriotism of Annapolis. Full of dramatic values, the film nevertheless provides a full share of comedy.

SON OF RUSTY

*Ted Donaldson, Stephen Dunne,
Ann Doran, Rusty*

A rumor that grows and gains distortion as it makes its way through Lawtonville, is the theme of this Rusty story. The harm that rumors and gossip can cause are soon realized by Danny Mitchell who is drawn to friendship with the victim, a new comer to town, because of a common interest in dogs. It all ends well when Jed Barlow not only disproves the rumors but emerges as his true, unselfish, heroic self.

MUSIC IN MY HEART

*Rita Hayworth, Tony Martin,
Andre Kostelanetz and his music*

Tony Martin's golden voice and Rita Hayworth's terpsichorean talent, supported by Andre Kostelanetz, are combined in this gay musical. Tony, an understudy, is to be deported on the very night that he has achieved success because his parents failed to become citizens. In a dramatic and highly hilarious fashion, he meets Rita who invites him home where he meets her sister, a White Russian cook, an Italian organ grinder and his monkey, Puchinello. There's lots of fun with this group and lots of romance too. Of course, Tony doesn't get deported.

JACK LONDON (United Artists)

Michael O'Shea, Susan Hayward, Ralph Morgan

The romantic, adventurous life of Jack London. . . . More thrilling than any book he wrote. Each scene more breath-taking than the previous as you follow the life of America's foremost foreign correspondent and author.

MY DOG SHEP

Lanny Rees, Tom Neal, William Farnum

An orphan, living with stingy relatives, finally leaves with his dog, his companion. An older man meets him on the highway and explains that he too left home because his daughter-in-law has made it plain that he is not wanted. When Danny inherits a fortune, their problems are solved. A picture of pathos, emotion and excitement.

NORTHWEST STAMPEDE (Eagle Lion)

Joan Leslie, James Craig, Jack Oakie, Chill Wills

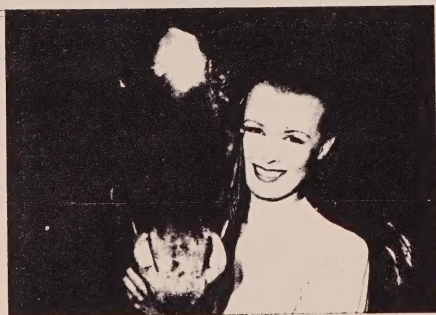

Joan Leslie, portraying an Annie Oakley role, adds a feminine touch to this great outdoor spectacle by out-shooting and out-riding any man in the West. Thrill to the thundering action of the Northwest's wildest rodeo—the Calgary Stampede—brought to the screen in Cinecolor. Thrill also to the great battle of White Outlaw, the untamed king of wild horses, and a fear-crazed wolfpack—animal drama which the screen has seldom before equalled.

SWISS FAMILY ROBINSON (RKO)

Thomas Mitchell, Freddie Bartholomew

Two of our foremost actors play the leads in this picturization of the well-known book. Dynamic action and thrills fill every moment of the story of a shipwrecked family.

THE NOOSE HANGS HIGH (Eagle Lion)

Bud Abbott, Lou Costello, Leon Errol, Kathy Downs

Those screen masterminds of mirth experience their most hilarious adventure. Mistaken for messengers, they are sent to collect $50,000 which they lose. Then the fun begins as they get involved in a merry chase to get their money back. Here is a picture packed full of laughs and riotous situations on a par with the comedians' best.

RED STALLION (Eagle-Lion)

Robert Paige, Noreen Nash, Ted Donaldson

Filmed in all the glorious colors of the great open West of the Mt. Shasta country, here is the poignant and heart warming drama of a boy's devotion to his horse. It deals with the lad's efforts to save the ranch by training a wild stallion for a race. On the night before the race the stallion is attacked by a bear, and the screen portrays a spectacle seldom equalled on film. This is the heart-pounding story of a great horse fighting for his life and a great love story told through the eyes of a worshipping boy. Cinecolor.

CAPTAIN KIDD (United Artists)

Charles Laughton, Randolph Scott, Barbara Britton

Reminiscent of his great portrayal of Captain Bligh, is this portrayal of Captain Kidd by Charles Laughton. This is the swashbuckling adventure story of one of the most famous buccaneers of all time. Randolph Scott, a young nobleman, seeking to clear his father's honor, wins a beautiful young noblewoman at the same time. Here is adventure, intrigue and excitement on the high seas.

*Joan Leslie, Louis Hayward, Virginia Fields,
Richard Basehart*

On the threshold of a new year a woman who had just experienced a year of unhappiness and frustration wished she could relive the passing year so that she could avoid many of the pitfalls that caused her misery. This is the story of the fulfillment of that wish. She knew what to avoid, she remembered the things that led to her misery as well as to grief for some of her dear friends. But although she directed destiny away from the same paths, somehow the ending was almost the same. This is the picture that combines the unusual and rare and comes up with an entertainment treat.

T-MEN
starring
DENNIS O'KEEFE

T-MEN (A-1)

TERRIFIC . . . and True! The screen searing story of the Treasury Department's tough guys. Dennis O'Keefe, Wallace Ford and June Lockhart head the dramatic cast.

The new power packed expose is a composite of three actual cases from Treasury Department files, picturing the activities of a nationwide counterfeiting, bootlegging and stamp forging ring. The operations of the gang illustrates the many facets of investigation work carried on by the Treasury Department.

O'Keefe is one of a pair of T-Men who go under cover to track down the gang. As far as possible the entire picture was filmed in the cities in which the action takes place: Chicago, Washington, New York, Boston, Montreal and Detroit.

This one is loaded . . . for the action fans. It's TOUGH! TENSE! TERRIFIC! and TRUE!

91 minutes

HIGH SCHOOL HERO (A-1)

70 minutes

Those delightful Teen Agers return in their latest school adventure. This time it's football and the rah, rah, rah of scholastic life, mixed with sizzlin' rhythm and swingin' romance.

It's not all smooth sailing what with a victoryless football team, a school paper with a losing circulation and the usual gloomy prospects resulting therefrom. But these are small matters to youthful enthusiasm and the solution of campus problems must be seen to be appreciated.

SUNBONNET SUE

91 minutes

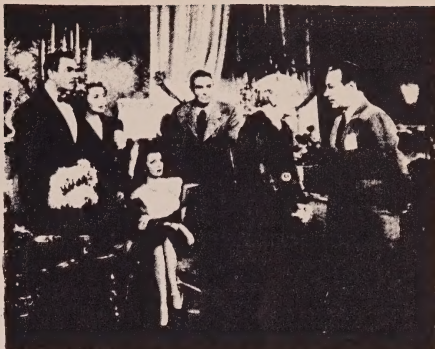

Gale Storm, Phil Regan and star cast in a story of the Gay Nineties when the light hearted people gave New York's Bowery much of its happy-go-lucky spirit. "School Days" and "By the Light of the Silvery Moon" head the old time musical favorites.

CHRISTMAS EVE

Joan Blondell, George Brent, George Raft, Randolph Scott, Virginia Field, Ann Harding

It's Christmas Eve when spirited, eccentric, seventy year old Matilda Reed sees her foster sons after many years. This is a trilogy of what happened to three boys whom she raised in a wealthy, cultural environment. One became a playboy, one, a night club operator in South America trying to evade the F. B. I., and the third a broken down rodeo performer. But they are still her boys and, when she needed them most, they came through. Three separate stories are combined in a single dramatic ending.

HE WALKED BY NIGHT

Richard Basehart, Scott Brady, Roy Roberts

This is a true story. It is known to the Police Department of Los Angeles as the most difficult homicide case in its experience, principally because of the diabolical cleverness and cunning of a completely unknown killer. In the watery darkness of the massive sewers that wind tortuously beneath Los Angeles, he was finally cornered, after the police hunted him patiently, skillfully, courageously—relentlessly tying each tiny clue, every shred and strand of evidence, into an ever-tightening net. A worthy successor to "Naked City."

BREWSTER'S MILLIONS

Dennis O'Keefe, Helen Walker, June Havoc, Eddie "Rochester" Anderson, Mischa Auer

He had to spend a million dollars in a month so that he'd be broke and eligible to inherit $7,000,000 left him by an eccentric uncle. And if you think it was easy, watch Monty Brewster try. Every effort to waste the money on bad investments and wild spending backfired and produced more money—but Brewster just meets the deadline in one of the funniest films you'll ever see.

LET'S LIVE A LITTLE (Eagle Lion)

Hedy Lamarr, Robert Cummings, Anna Sten

Entertainment in the great comedy tradition. Bob and Hedy are teamed hilariously in one of the screen's grandest, gayest, raciest farces. Laughs—laughs—laughs—from beginning to end. Bob imagines he hears phones ringing—Hedy, a doctor, cures him to the accompaniment of a sparkling comedy romance. You'll love every minute of it.

SHE GETS HER MAN

8 Reels—Comedy

Playing a great dual role, Joan Davis convulses audiences when she tracks down a murderer as only Joan Davis could solve a crime. An exciting and hilarious comedy, co-starring William Gargan, Leon Errol and a great cast.

JIVE JUNCTION

6 Reels—Musical

A little romance, a little suspense, lots of music and fun in this dandy picture about a teen-age swing band starring Dickie Moore, Tina Thayer, Garra Young.

RETURN OF WILDFIRE

70 minutes

Wildfire, big, black stallion leader of a large herd of wild horses, comes from the hills and leads the mares away from the Marlowe Ranch. Marlowe, riding after the horses, is knocked from his mount by his foreman, Keller, and killed in the stampede.

The two daughters of Marlowe are then victims of an attempt to defraud them of the ranch and their estate. One of their ranch hands, Richard Arlen, aids them in saving the ranch by capturing more wild horses to replenish the ranch herd. Capturing the wild horses and outwitting those who covet the ranch head a series of exciting events climaxed by a realistic fight scene. Patricia Morrison and Mary Beth Hughes are the sisters, and James Millican and Reed Hadley lend able support.

HANGMEN ALSO DIE

13 Reels—Drama

Who finally killed the bloody Nazi hangman, Heydrich? This film tells the exciting story about the most fantastic incident of the war and the brave couple who set out to deliver justice to a murderer. With Brian Donlevy, Walter Brennan, Anna Lee, Gene Lockhart, Dennis O'Keefe.

RIMFIRE

Raw, red-meat realism characterizes this major western production with James Millican, Mary Beth Hughes, Fuzzy Knight and Henry Hull. A recent Hollywood production, the sound and photography are outstanding.

The story opens with a bang—in fact, a series of bangs as the stage is held up. Arriving in a New Mexico settlement the Abilene Kid is tried in court for using marked cards in a poker game. Frontier justice is swift and the Kid has disappeared from the local scene only a short time when an avenger starts taking toll of all connected with his unjust execution. You'll be on the edge of your seat as the plot rushes to a surprise climax in the hunt for the avenging killer. Not recommended for small children, but suitable for Junior High School ages and above.

LAST OF THE WILD HORSES (A-1) 80 minutes

A big action outdoor spectacle, filmed against the beauty of the Rogue River Valley with a story treatment different from the usual run. Filmed in southern Oregon, with authentic and colorful backgrounds, "Last of the Wild Horses" is the story of a rich ranch owner who will not join the other ranchers in leaving a herd of wild horses alone for a year in order to allow the herd to increase in size. The rancher's daughter falls in love with a young cowboy who takes the part of the other ranchers. After the cowboy quarrels with the older man, who shortly afterwards is found dead, he is arrested and tried for the murder.

THE GLADIATOR

Joe E. Brown, June Travis, Robert Kent

'ee-ee-oo-ow! Joe's a football hero now! Joe is transformed from a college freshman sap to the strongest man on earth by an experimenting professor. Being a great football star isn't enough, so our hero engages an Mountain Dean in a wrestling match, only to have his unusual strength run out in the middle of the match. One of the funniest pictures ever!

TROUBLE IN TEXAS

Parents Magazine rates this: "Good for the whole family" and Film Daily says: "Off the beaten path."—Desperate Western gangsters, stage-coach holdups, thrilling rodeo action suspense, and fine songs. TEX RITTER, RITA CANSINO (RITA HAYWORTH), EARL DWIRE, CHARLES KING, YAKIMA CANUTT.

WATER RUSTLERS

A story of treachery on the range. Deadly fights for desperately needed water. Romance, music and feminine charm. Dependable VINCE BARNETT is comedy foil for the charming star.

RHODES OF AFRICA

11 reels

Walter Huston gives masterful personification of great imperialist who corners the gold and diamond resources of South Africa, and precipitates the Boer War.

SONG OF MY

(The life and music of Tchaikowsky)
with SIR CEDRIC HARDWICKE,
AUDREY LONG

SO ENDS OUR NIGHT (United Artists)

Fredric March, Glenn Ford, Margaret Sullivan, Francis Dee

Erich Maria Remarque's rich warm novel "Flotsam" has been translated into a mighty screen drama. This is the story of refugees, the homeless, stateless, victims of circumstances. Hounded and arrested, their only crime being their lack of passports, these people of all faiths seek no more than secure homes and the opportunity to work. Two great love stories, one of youth and one of maturity are acted out in the midst of the stark realities of homelessness. A picture you will see with your heart.

DUKE OF WEST POINT

Joan Fontaine, Louis Hayward, Tom Brown, Richard Carlson

West Point serves as the background for a stirring story of football, hockey, and cadet life. The major theme of the story deals with a plebe who sacrifices his standing with the cadets to help a roommate. Comedy, pathos, thrills, and of course, a happy ending.

WAY OUT WEST

Stan Laurel and Oliver Hardy

Even Sitting Bull would stand up to laugh at Laurel and Hardy portraying two prospectors in the wild and woolly west of the "Gay 90's." They sing! They dance! They're howlariou in this ga-ga saga of the West. More dumb stunts, more comical situations, more excitement, and more laughs than any Laurel and Hardy picture we have presented heretofore.

SWISS MISS

Stan Laurel and Oliver Hardy, Della Lind, Walter W. King, Eric Blore

With an Alpine setting of breathtaking splendor, with five delightful choral and solo musical presentations, and with hilarious comedy provided by those zanies, Laurel and Hardy, this is a story of two mouse-trap salesmen (Laurel and Hardy of course)

IT HAPPENED TOMORROW (United Artists)

Dick Powell, Linda Darnell, Jack Oakie

Here is one of the most delightful comedy fantasies ever produced. A man buys tomorrow's paper today and knows everything that is going to happen twenty-four hours ahead of time. That's fine for a while but there are some things a man had better not know too soon.

CANON CITY (Eagle Lion)

Scott Brady, Jeff Corey, Ralph Byrd, Warden Roy Best

It's five o'clock, Tuesday, December 30, 1947. The people of Canon City, Colorado are preparing for another quiet winter evening. Dusk almost hides the grim silhouette of the State Penitentiary on the edge of town. Suddenly it happens! A siren screams—then another—and another—shattering the air itself with their terrifying wails. Twelve desperate convicts, armed with crude shotguns, clubs and knives have battered their way to freedom in the most spectacular jailbreak of our time! Dragging as hostages four guards, they force their frenzied way into homes at gun point.

THE MAN FROM TEXAS (Eagle Lion)

James Craig, Lynn Bari, Johnny Johnston

Half saint, half renegade—that was the man from Texas. The Robin Hood of the Texas Panhandle loved Texas, loved people and couldn't see anything wrong with holding up a stagecoach to help a widow pay her mortgage. He was a plain pioneer from the plains who didn't understand business or laws. A woman, his wife, finally tamed him. She found what a thousand posse bullets sought—his heart. Johnny Johnston adds some beautiful ballads of the West to stir your heart.

MICKEY (Eagle Lion)

Lois Butler, Bill Goodwin, Irene Hervey, John Sutton

Meet Lois Butler, America's newest sweetheart, with the sweetest personality and the sweetest voice to reach the screen in a long time. Meet her as Mickey—a girl you've seen all over America—on its Main Streets, in its cities, on its farms. Starting as a tomboy baseball player, watch Mickey become a young lady when she gets a crush on one of the boys on the team. She'll set your heart aglow with songs, warmth and laughter. The best adolescent story to be filmed in a long time. Cinecolor.

Reavis, a one-time clerk in the Arizona land office, hatched a plan to swindle the whole 113,000 square miles of the Arizona Territory on the basis of a forged Spanish land grant. Using a beautiful woman as his dupe, he passed her off as a direct descendant of a non-existent Spanish nobleman who, according to his forged papers, owned the land. Then he married the girl, and set himself up as the "Baron" of Arizona.

Historically, the United States Government was so impressed with his documents and glib story that the Department of Interior offered him a cool $25 million for his interest in the disputed real estate.
